

Any further media consolidation threatens to weaken our democracy. It effects what every American sees, hears, and reads. I oppose any changes that would end long-established rules on multiple ownership. The FCC owes it to the American people to hold more public hearings on this issue.